Kanthan Village: No Black Spot

Perak Government in a press statement says:

"It is possible to draw from the proximity of the reports and the headlines in some newspaper reports on the resettlement of Kanthan village in Perak, the conclusion that this village is in a similar position to the villages of Busut and Jenderam of Selangor. It has been pointed out that the move of the small village of Kanthan is a normal regrouping of squatters and small-holders and it is not a punishment inflicted upon that village for its assistance to, or in connection with, the terrorists."
