Jenderam: two charged

From Our Own Correspondent

KAJANG, Wed.

TWO young Indians, M. Nathan and Sambutram, who were arrested at the deserted village of Jenderam on April 3 with two sacks full of padi, mats and bowls and two frying pans, were at Kajang charged with being unable to account satisfactorily for the possession of the goods, which were suspected of having been fraudulently obtained.

The case was postponed to April 17.
