18th village to get 17D penalty

KUALA LUMPUR, Wed. EIGHTEEN villages in the Federation have now been punished under Emergency Regulation 17D for collaboration with the Communist Bandits.

Notable instances have been Pusing, in Perak, which was fined, and Jenderam, in Selangor, which was razed.

In 1949, 16 places were punished involving almost 8,000 people. Early this year, the 1,500 people of Jenderam were punished. This is the 17th village to be moved.
