1,600 want to go back

KUALA LUMPUR, Tues. — Former villagers of Jendaram, south Selangor, are to hold a meeting on Sunday in Gombak, six miles from here, to discuss a memorandum to send to the State Government asking to be allowed to return to the kampong.

The village was closed in 1951 because of terrorist activities.

The 1,600 villagers were resettled in various parts of Selangor.
